TO TEST HYDROAEROS AS WAR SCOUTS AT SEA:

Cruiser North Carolina Fitted Out as Station Ship for Fleet Experiments.

WASHINGTON, June 20 .- For the first time in the history of the American navy experiments to determine th eavailability of hydro-aeroplanes for scout duty at sea are to be undertaken during the summer manoeuvres of the Atlantic fleet. Six of the sea at the high for the recovery. planes are now being put aboard the armored cruiser North Carolina, station ship at the Pensacola naval avistion station, which has been ordered to take part in the manoeuvres. The North Carolina is fitted with catapaulting device, by means of which hydro-aeroplanes can be shot out into the air in any weather, no matter how rough the sea. The device was recently perfected and is an advance over anything in foreign Heretofore it has been possible to use the aircraft only in calm weather, when they could be dropped over side and rise from the surface of

The North Carolina will be fitted also with a hydrogen generating plant and carry a kite balloon for observation and fire spotting. It will operate as a scout in advance of the fleet, as a scout in advance of the fleet, Centra and the hydro-aeroplane will be employed to extend her radius of action. It is planned to allow the balloon to rise above to a considerable distance rise above to a considerable distance during the manoeuvres, and officers in the basket, connected with the ship by telephone, will direct the fire of the guns from this altitude. If the plan works out successfully every fighting ship in the navy will be similarly equipped.

Ever taste Virginia sunshine?

JOU did - if you ever smoked Y a cigarette of Virginia tobacco. Virginia, you know, is "the tobacco man's tobacco", because it gives to a cigarette |the one quality no other tobacco can give -that refreshing liveliness called "character" / And smokers want "character" above all else.

Piedmonts have "character" in full measure—they're highest grade Virginia. ALL Virginia! Golden, lively, mellow as Virginia sunshine!

Next time, buy your regular brandbut say "Piedmonts", too, just so you can know them for yourself!
